Hope Sojourns
GO WITH HOPE. SERVE WITH FAITH.

GROW WITH HOPE.
SERVE WITH FAITH.

Three streams. One purpose.

Meaningful service. Deeper connection. Lasting change.

Learning and reflecting together in Athens, Greece.

Who we are

Hope Sojourns connects willing people with trusted local ministries through purposeful journeys of faith, service, learning, and lasting relationship.

Rooted in Christian faith, we serve alongside local leaders, listen with humility, and see each person as a neighbor with dignity and a story worth hearing.

01

Mission Journeys

Goal: Heart Transformation

For individuals, churches, and teams. Serve alongside local ministries caring for people experiencing homelessness, refugees, and those seeking a new start. Through service, listening, and reflection, let God transform your heart and the way you see others.

02

Internships

Goal: Service Through Experience and Education

For students and recent graduates ready to apply their skills in a ministry setting. Opportunities are shaped around local needs, learning goals, and responsible supervision, with preparation and weekly Hope Sojourns check-ins.

03

Humanitarian Journeys

Goal: Leadership Transformation

For businesses, senior leaders, and executive teams. Our written Leadership Transformation curriculum connects practical service, guided reflection, and everyday leadership. Explore how compassion and integrity can shape relationships with staff, clients, and peers.

Listen. Learn. Serve. Grow. Bring a heart of service home.

Help the next story begin.

Go. Give. Pray. Invite someone into the journey.

Your generosity makes room for hope.

Hope Sojourns accepts and relies in part on the generosity of individuals who share donations, tithes, and offerings. Alongside journey participation, these gifts help sustain our ministry and make purposeful service possible.

Our commitment to 100% transparency: We are committed to responsible stewardship, clear communication about how gifts support our work, and openness to questions about ministry finances.

Support the ministry

Give once or monthly to help sustain the planning, preparation, relationships, and ongoing work behind our journeys.

Help someone go

Sponsor all or part of a traveler's journey. Ask us about current needs and ways to help someone participate.

Small encounters. A different way of seeing.

The red juice box

In Athens, a woman accepted a sandwich but wanted a red juice box instead of a blue one. Brent initially questioned her gratitude. A teammate helped him see what he had missed: she had preferences, dignity, and a life of her own.

Service begins with seeing the person.

John on a bench

Brent stopped to talk with John on a bench in Athens, then returned the next evening to listen longer. John shared an honest truth: "The problem is loneliness." Being present mattered as much as anything Brent could offer.

Sometimes the gift is staying to listen.
